South Boston - Halifax County Museum of Fine Arts and History

This year our events include venues over three days. The Crossing of the Dan Committee cordially invites all interested to attend any/or all these proceedings.

Thursday, 5:00 P.M., February 17, 2022, the South Boston - Halifax County Museum will host an historical program presented by Jim Morgan, M.A. entitled “Race to the Dan, Race to Defeat – Stories Before and After the Crossing”

1540 Wilborn Avenue; South Boston, Virginia

Friday, 5:00 P.M., February 18, 2022, the Town of Halifax will host a commemoration of General Greene’s Banister River Encampment King’s Bridge Landing. Colonel Greg Eanes, USAF (Ret) presents a program on “Halifax County Patriots in the Revolution”, an account of locations and events which occurred on the banks of Banister River in 1781. After this speech a Barbeque Supper (with sides) will be served at the Sportsman Club.

$15 per plate – RSVP by registration form, by February 8, 2022

Outdoor seating will be extremely limited. Suggest participants bring their own chairs.

1041 Bethel Road; Halifax, Virginia

Saturday, 10:00 A.M., February 19, 2022, a SAR National Event will be held commemorating the 1781 Crossing of the Dan. Andrew Waters, author of “To the End of the World”, will speak on General Greene’s Race to the Dan. Weather permitting, events are planned at Boyd’s Ferry after this opening program.

801 Wilborn Avenue; South Boston, Virginia

Musicians, David Russell and Roland Terry, will perform period music throughout this commemoration. Russell and Terry were featured at the 2020 Crossing of the Dan and were well-received by attendees.

Their 2020 program was entitled “Music of the Revolutionary War Period”.
